

As summer is winding to a close, we have a few issues that may be important to keep in mind as vacation season comes to an end and the days start getting shorter.

"Few of us ever test our powers of deduction, except when filling out an income tax form."

— Laurence J. Peter, author

- Third quarter estimated payments for federal and state taxes are due on September 15th. You probably already know if this applies to you but you may not know these payments can be made online. We highly recommend using www.eftps.gov to make federal payments. Please contact us to see if your state has a similar online payment option. If you are one of our clients, you should have your vouchers in hand so you can pay timely.
- As you may be aware, the Residential Energy Tax Credits were allowed to expire in 2008, however they have been reinstated for 2009. So if you were thinking of getting that new high-efficiency heat pump, air conditioner, and water heater, energy-efficient windows, doors, insulation materials, and certain roofs, now might be the time to schedule an installation. Generally, if the item is certified by Energy Star, it will probably qualify, but call us to discuss your specific purchases.
- Olbricht Storniolo Group LLC is in the process of transitioning to a new email domain name. The new format is simple. Start with the first name of the person you wish to contact followed by @OSGroupCPAs.com. Therefore, Joel's email address is Joel@OSGroupCPAs.com and similarly, Frank's is Frank@OSGroupCPAs.com

www.OSGroupCPAs.com

Olbricht Storniolo Group is proud to present this general information and is not specific to your situation. This should not constitute tax and accounting advice as your individual financial and tax situations may be different. PLEASE SEEK professional advice from your own professional team of lawyers and CPAs, or contact us to obtain proper advice on using this general information.